Ronald Bamford, chairman of the Junior Week Executive Committee has announced the following program of festivities for the festive week of the College year. The program is subject to change and the committee expects to uncork a couple of surprises after the festivities have actually begun.

According to the present plans there will be two baseball games, the Junior-Senior Banquet, the annual competition by the R. O. T. C. companies for the Amory Cup, the Junior Prom, a tree dedication by the class of 1924, a tea dance, and last but not least, the Junior class production of the well-known play, "Three Live Ghosts."

HANDSOME THESAURUS PRESENTED TO "CAMPUS"

Leather Bound Volume is Gift of Rev. Marshall Dawson to College Paper.

A handsome Thesaurus of The English Language has been given to "The Campus" by Rev. Marshall Dawson, in appreciation of the several courtesies extended to him during the year. The big leather bound volume contains many synonyms and antonyms and will be very useful to the editors of the Campus boards from year to year, when writing for the publication.

It is intended that the book become a part of the regular equipment of the "Campus" office and be handed down to the succeeding editors.

DETAILED PLANS BEING FORMULATED FOR CONNECTICUT DAY CLEAN-UP

ATHLETIC FIELD AND GROUNDS IN FRONT OF DINING HALL TO RECEIVE MUCH ATTENTION

Division Heads and All Members of Working Parties Will be Posted on Bulletin Board Saturday.—Co-eds Will Take Waiters Places at Noon-day Meal in Dining Hall and Will Serve Open Air Supper.—Old Clothes Dance in Evening.

Connecticut Day, the day when all students and faculty will turn out in working attire to clean up the campus for Junior Week, is rapidly approaching and plans are now completed for the activities of the day. Monday evening a mass meeting will be held in the Armory to work up the pep and enthusiasm that will make Tuesday the most successful Connecticut Day in the annals of the college.

The committee has formulated extensive plans that will require the co-operation of everyone. Saturday afternoon there will be posted on the bulletin board in the main building a detailed outline of the work to be undertaken. Each student will be assigned to the group in which he is to work, so that on Tuesday he can start his task without delay. Tuesday morning everyone will report before eight o'clock on the athletic field, where tools and implements will be found and everybody will be able to start work at eight o'clock sharp.

Three large projects are to be undertaken besides a number of smaller ones. The first of these is the clearing of the land that lies in back of Koons Hall between the dining hall and the athletic field. Professor F. W. Knipe will have the stumps blasted out before Tuesday so that they can be gathered together and burned. All the large rocks will be removed and the ground leveled. Work will be started on three new tennis courts near the south end of the Armory to replace

"ALL-COLLEGE ENTERTAINMENT" PLANNED

Entertaining Organizations Will Each be Given Part.—Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Farrell and Professor H. A. Secker-son's Drama Class Two Special Features.—One Hundred Percent Support to be Solicited.

Something entirely new to C. A. C. will be offered when on Saturday evening, May 12, an "All-College Entertainment" will be presented in Hawley Armory, as a means of raising funds with which to pay off the 1922 Nutmeg deficit.

The various artistic organizations on the Hill are cooperating for the purpose of making this first "All-College Entertainment" an event to be remembered, and plans which are rapidly nearing completion give promise of an evening that will be replete with both artistic and unique features.

Organizations and individuals listed to appear on the program include the Girls' Glee Club, the Blackguards, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Farrell, the College Quartet, the Modern Drama Class, and a number of talented musicians from the student body.

Of special interest is the announcement that the Blackguards, Connecti-

According to F. W. Metzger, chairman of the Junior Prom Committee, this year's Prom will be the best ever run at C. A. C. NOTED TENOR PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE HERE

Accompanists Skilled Artists.—Concert Enjoyed Despite Heavy Rain.

In spite of a heavy rain which burst shortly before the start of the concert Paul Dufault, the noted French tenor, sang to a large and enthusiastic audience in Hawley Armory last Saturday evening. He brought with him two associates, Roland Poisson, violinist, and Alfred Carrier, pianist.

Mr. Dufault showed great ability at characterization, while his versatility was manifested by the variety of the program. He seemed not to be primarily a lyric tenor, and his voice at times was almost harsh; during

Three Pitchers Used by Connecticut—
Erratic Fielding Allowed Massachusetts Men to Pile up Big Score.—
Springfield Uses Second and Third String Men.

On Wednesday afternoon Connecticut journeyed to Springfield where on Pratt Field, the locals suffered the worst defeat of the season at the hands of Springfield College, by the score of 15 to 4. Seven errors were chalked up against the Aggies, not including the errors of omission which were many. Three pitchers were used in a vain attempt to hold the Springfield sluggers in check, but clean hits together with erratic fielding by the guardians of Connecticut's inner defense enabled the home team to amass a big lead.

During the last few innings, the Physical Directors used their second and third string men without losing any of the team's effectiveness.

Lord started on the Mound but proved ineffective and was relieved by White in the second inning. "Gramp" did the best work for Connecticut, and but for the numerous errors behind him would have held the opponents safe. Springfield scored five runs in the sixth before Hamm ended the inning by flying out to Makofski. Laubscher, who hurled the last two innings was hit rather freely, four hits and four runs being charged against his delivery. In the seventh Sturm made a home run when Makofski misjudged his long fly.

Connecticut scored in the second on hits by Brundage and Fitzgerald and Makofski's sacrifice, and twice in the fourth when O'Brien and Metelli scored on Ahearn's single and Brundage's double.

For Connecticut Captain "Kid" Brundage and "Tommy" Fitzgerald showed up well, while the whole Springfield team displayed marked ability both at bat and in the field.

The line-up follows:

COLBY TRIMS AGGIES BY SCORING SEVEN RUNS IN FOURTH FRAME

FINAL SCORE 9-5 AS CONNECTICUT

BOWS IN CONTEST MARKED BY HARD HITTING

White Replaces Laubscher in Fifth.—Fitzgerald leads Aggie Attack With Two Timely Hits

By taking advantage of one bad inning and scoring seven runs on six hits, a base on balls and an error, Colby was able to defeat Connecticut on Gardner Dow diamond last Friday by a nine to five score. The game, which was not started until four o'clock, was called in the seventh inning to allow the visitors to catch a train for Lowell. The visitors outthit Connecticut ten to five, but Porter was wild and issued eight bases on balls.

Lampher, the lead-off man for Colby got to first on Baxter's error, and went to second when the ball went into the grand stand. Laubscher struck out Cutler and Shanahan, but Royal singled, scoring the base runner. Royal was out when he attempted to steal second. In Connecticut's half of the stanza Ganem and O'Brien went out on infield balls, and Metelli singled, but was left on the paths when Laubscher lifted a foul fly which the Colby catcher gathered in.

In the second inning Peabody singled, but Fransen, Wilson and Callahan were easy outs. Connecticut made its first score of the game when Brundage walked and went to second on an infield ball hit by Makofski. Fitzgerald then tripled along the right field foul line scoring Brundage. "Fitz" was an easy out when he attempted to make home on Baxter's grounder to Fransen. Mullane rolled a grounder to the pitcher and was out at first base.

Colby Gets Seven

In the third the Colby batters went out in order as did the Connecticut stickers, with the exception of Metelli, who got a free trip to first base. Colby had their big inning in the fourth when "Mammy" Laubscher weakened. Shanahan, the first man up, was out when he lifted a high fly to Makofski, but Royal and Fransen singled, and Peabody doubled to right center, scoring both runners. Wilson singled, and Callahan got to first when Ganem bungled his grass cutter. Porter was out on an infield fly, making two out. Lampher walked, filling the bases, and Cutler drove out a two base hit, clearing the sacks. Shanahan, up for the second time in the inning, singled and Shanahan scored. Royal ended the inning when he struck out. For a while in the last half of the inning it looked as though Connecticut was going to get the seven runs back when Brundage got to first on an error by Porter and Makofski doubled, scoring Brundage, Fitzgerald also doubled, scoring Makofski. The next three men up for Connecticut went out in order, and Connecticut's best chance to get back the lead was gone.

White went to the box in the fifth and was nicked for one more run, when an error by Mullane and hits by Peabody and Callahan drove one across the home plate. Metelli got another base on balls in the fifth but was left on bases when O'Brien, White and Brundage were out on infield balls.

Although Colby got two men on the bases through errors on the part of the Aggie infield, they failed to hit safely and both men were left on the sacks. Connecticut had another good chance to score some counters when Porter passed Fitzgerald and Baxter and hit Mullane with a pitched ball, filling the bases. Ganem hit a sacrifice fly to center field and Fitzgerald scored. O'Brien then walked, filling all the bases again. Metelli ended the inning when he lifted a high fly back of second base which Peabody caught after a long run. Colby went out in order in the seventh, and Connecticut scored another run in their last time at bat when White singled, Brundage got a base on balls, and Ahearn, who batted for Baxter also received a free trip to the initial sack. With the bases full, Porter made a wild pitch and White scored. Mullane ended the game when he hit to third base.

Peabody was the heavy hitter for Colby, getting three hits out of four times at bat, one of them for a double. For Connecticut Makofski and Fitzgerald were the heavy hitters, "Fitzzy" getting a double and a triple in three times at bat, while Makofski got a double in four trips to the plate.

AGGIES TO PLAY RHODE ISLAND SATURDAY

TUFTS AT MEDFORD
TO BE NEXT BATTLE

Both Opponents to be Met on Foreign Fields.—Strong Opposition Expected.

The Blue and White ball-tossers will journey to Kingston on Saturday to do battle with Coach Keaney's aggregation of diamond artists. "Rhody" has been going well during the present season and the record of the team shows that they have a fast outfit which has shown up well against stonger teams. However, with the experience of the past weeks in back of them, the Aggies will be out in full strength to avenge the defeats of past years on the diamond.

On Wednesday the team will meet Tufts at Medford in the initial contest between two colleges on the diamond. Tufts is reputed to have a strong nine this year and local dopsters look for a tight contest.

JUNIORS WIN SECOND GAME IN CLASS SERIES

Sophomore Pitcher Goes Wild in Fifth —Juniors Start Scoring in First.

On Wednesday afternoon of this week, the world beating juniors won their second consecutive game of the season in easily conquering their underclassmen, the sophomores. The juniors started their rampage at the very start of the game by scoring two runs in the first inning, while the sophs failed to send a player across the plate. Post started the second inning with a fly to Radomski, who made a neat catch. Slyz, the sophomore versatile pitcher, then showed some big league form and struck out the next two men up. The sophomores in this inning slammed out two hits that brought in a run for them. In the third inning Brenneis, the juniors' "Babe Ruth", changed one of Slyz's curves into a three base hit that sent Szafer in for another run. Eddy then showed the juniors that his team could also twist a mean bat by hitting the ball out into center field for a two base hit. He crossed the home plate on a wild throw. The sophs scored another run in the fourth inning, tying the score at three all. In the fifth and final inning, Macdonald, who replaced Slyz in the box for the sophs, went wild, walking four men and allowing three hits that brought in seven runs for the juniors. "Slats" Bamford, the juniors' reliable, pitched the last inning for his class. The sophomores scored two runs in the last inning, making the final score of the game Juniors 10, Sophomores 5.

MASS AGGIE MEETS LOCAL TRACK TEAM SATURDAY

COAST GUARD HERE
WEDNESDAY, MAY 9

Local Outfit Given Slight Edge in Both Meets.—Much Good Material Out.

After several weeks of practice, Coach Daly's charges will be seen in action on Gardner Dow Field and Connecticut rooters expect a close encounter with the Mass. Aggie Track Team on Saturday afternoon when the Bay Staters will appear on the local field. Advance dope regarding the rival team gives the local outfit a slight edge over its rival. During the indoor season Mass. Aggie was bested by Northeastern by a greater score than were the local tracksters. MacCreedy, middle distance runner is Mass. Aggie's best bet.

However local stars have shown up well lately, Coach Daly giving the audience the wink during Tuesday's trials. Much is expected of Captain Steere, Jacoby, Velhage, Stocking, Hankowitz, Slyz, Listro, Cleland and Nelson on the cinder path, also of Johnson, Shaefer and Goodrich, hurdlers. McAllister, Wardle, Longo and Ashman with the shot and hammer; Larry Lawson, Hurley and Mills with the javelin and discus; Dossin, Chase and Finneman, pole vaulters and Squires, Holdridge and Barry, jumpers, are displaying promising form. With this aggregation "Steve" says that the Aggies should present a formidable front.

The United State Coast Guard Academy team will meet the local outfit on Gardner Dow Field on Wednesday, May 9. Not much is known of their team with the exception that Betzmer participated in the Pentathlon at Penn. University, obtaining second places in the discus and javelin throwing events. There is a possibility of a meet with Northeastern later in the season.

cut's famed minstrels, will have a prominent part on the program. In past years this organization staged shows that were noted for being all that makes a minstrel show enjoyable and worthwhile, and this year's first appearance, under the direction of G. I. Snedman, promises to be up to the standard of past performances.

The Modern Drama Class will present one of George Bernard Shaw's one-act plays under the direction of Professor Seckerson who is giving the course. The presentation marks an entirely new effort in Dramatics here at Connecticut and this fact will make it of greater interest to the entire college.

In an effort to obtain a 100 percent support of the entertainment, a thorough and systematic canvass of the entire student body will be begun next week, and considering the worthiness of the cause, everyone is expected to give support.

VARSAITY CLUB TO GIVE SECOND DANCE

The festivities of the month of May will begin with the Varsity Club dance to be held tonight in Hawley Armory. This is the second dance given by the athletes this year, and promises to be a fine affair. The committee, Louis Metelli, chairman, James Mullane and William O'Brien, have arranged a neat order of twelve dances. The program will sell for seventy-five cents per couple.

The second game ended Mu Delta. The winners defeated with a twenty point lead by Phi both Eta Lambda Sigma and Phi Epsilon Pi in the other two games in which they took part.

ENTERTAINMENT

In order to clear the deficit on the 1922 Nutmeg the seniors have combined the various joy-specializing organizations on the campus to stage a benefit entertainment on the evening of May 12.

This is the final drive of the 1922 Nutmeg board and if it is not fully supported the remainder of the debt will have to be paid by the student body which is responsible for the financial success of the publication. An individual canvass of the entire student body will be made during the coming week.

Two of the many reasons why every member of the student body is expected to buy a ticket are: first, the Nutmeg is a college publication for which the student body is responsible and it is now in need of support; secondly, the various organizations that will take part, including the Men's Glee Club, the Womens' Glee Club, the Dramatic Club, the College Quartet, the Blackguards, and Professor H. A. Seckerson's class in Modern Drama, are college activities and need support in their work.

Buy that Ticket NOW!

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Probably one of the organizations that gets as many raps and as little praise during the average college year as the "Campus" does, is the Social Committee. A dance is too short; there aren't enough dances in the year; some of the entertainments do not please the ever-critical, constant crabbing Aggie, or something else is not done as one would have it carried out.

The entertainment of last Saturday night marks the climax and the close of the program of outside entertainers for the present college year. On the whole the form of entertainment secured through the efforts of the Social Committee, of which Professor A. G. Skinner is chairman, has been of high order and is deserving of praise. The student body has been favored with different forms of up-to-date amusements that would cost double and triple the price charged here in the cities.

Also the pictures shown during the past year have been of a high quality and as up-to-date as many shown in the smaller cities of the country.

The usual Saturday night movies or an occasional entertainment are amusing, interesting, instructive, and very beneficial to the student body and to the college community. The good work of the present committee should be encouraged, and supported to the utmost another year.

RETURN! ALUMNI!

About this time of the year it is the time-worn custom for the alumni of the various colleges and educational institutions throughout the land to don their thinking caps, squeeze the Eagle and plan to return to their Alma Mater for Commencement, for other things that are held dear to all reunions, and for the hundreds of those who have been so fortunate as to spend a small fraction of their lives on a college campus.

Like all institutions Connecticut is favored with many loyal alumni. Just how large this number of loyal alumni may be is largely determined by the numbers of the "old grads" that re-visit the scenes of their youth during the month of roses each year.

Connecticut alumni are already planning their meeting, banquets, informal gatherings and parties for the coming Commencement time. Hundreds of alumni will invade the hills of Mansfield and many of these will express surprise at the many changes about the campus, and everyone will leave the "College on the hilltop" satisfied that their time and trouble to make the journey was not spent in vain.

The 1923 Commencement and reunion will make the same progress and extension that has been evident in many other activities on the Hill during the college year. Alumni start planning now. Come early, and enjoy a good week-end on the Aggie campus among the many old friends and the hosts of new ones that are waiting to greet you.

It is a tradition of the College that on Connecticut Day everyone turns out to do his or her duty unless prevented by sickness or some other unavoidable circumstance. The freshmen will fall in line and co-operate with the upperclassmen in the annual "clean-up" next Tuesday.

SOPHOMORE-FRESHMEN TO DEBATE NEXT WEDNESDAY

First Under-class Contest of Its Kind to Occur at President's Hour May 9

The Sophomore-Freshman Debate, the first to be held at Connecticut, will take place next Wednesday at President's Hour.

The sophomore team is composed of S. R. Greenblatt, J. Balock, G. Warrek and W. Levy alternate. The freshman team consists of C. H. Ende, J. Doyle, Milton Moore and an alternate who has not yet been chosen. The subject of the debate will be: Resolved, That the United States Enter the World Court. Manager Oscar D'Esopo of the sophomore team and Manager Loeb of the freshman team have their men at work. There will be six five minute speeches, and six three minute rebuttals.

This debate marks the inauguration of a new tradition at Connecticut. It was brought about through the efforts of Alpha Lambda Alpha, the honorary debating fraternity at Connecticut. Alpha Lambda Alpha proposes to have a Sophomore-Freshman debate every year. The names of the winning team will be engraved on a bronze tablet which will be placed in the library by Alpha Lambda Alpha.

NOTED EDITOR SPEAKS AT COLLEGE ASSEMBLY

Mr. C. S. Williams of Princeton, N. J., editor of the "Indianapolis News" for 20 years, and biographer of Ex-President Hayes, was the speaker at Assembly Wednesday, May 2. Mr. Williams is at present working on the diary and letters of Hayes, which will soon be published, and he gave many interesting anecdotes from the two documents. He gave an illuminating portrayal of the character of the president and read some letters which clearly defined the true greatness of the man.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB TO GIVE INFORMAL CONCERT

To be Held Out Doors.—Only Opportunity to Hear Club at College This Year.

Monday evening, May 7, at 7:15 p. m., on the lawn between Dr. H. D. Newton's and the state highway, the Men's Glee Club will give an informal concert. No charge will be made. In case of inclement weather, the concert will be given the next evening.

The Club wishes to state its regret in not being able to appear in the All-College entertainment on the evening of May 12. Because of the absence of the majority of the members on required trips, it will be impossible for the Club to participate. The informal concert will in no way interfere with the All-College entertainment. It is given to allow the college an opportunity to hear the Club, since this opportunity cannot be given in a formal concert this year.

SAFETY VALVE

THE SOPHOMORE CLUB

To the Editor of the "Campus":

A recent editorial headed "A Sophomore Club," carries the interesting information that "at the present time there are movements on foot to bring about the establishing of a set of athletic etiquette rules for Connecticut which will deal with the care of visiting teams and other such matters as effect our athletic morals." It is suggested editorially that a Sophomore Club be organized with all due apurtenances.

Before many steps are taken to reduce "athletic etiquette rules" to writing—and I believe "reduce" to be an apt word in more than one sense—perhaps it would be well to recall why visiting athletic teams invariably express appreciation of the courtesies extended to them during their stay at C. A. C.

Without wishing to incur the charge of boasting, it may be stated that these courtesies are extended by Aggie men whenever possible and are extended in a spirit of true hospitality. The student body is, and let us hope it will be for some time to come, small enough and interested enough to consider the entertainment of visiting athletes a personal privilege as well as an obligation. By delegating this function to an organized committee (the very name sounds ominous) much of the spontaneity will have been lost and entertainment of guests will have degenerated to a duty—a very onerous task indeed. Please do not carry the standardization program to the extent where all sense of individual responsibility on the part of every student is stunted.

With regard to the consideration of "athletic morals" which you advance as a feasible project for the attention of a sophomore club, it may not be amiss to suggest that this too is a responsibility which no member of any student body can conceivably delegate to anyone else.

Remember, Mr. Editor, that C. A. C. has just about its full quota of committees and regulatory boards. From limited personal observation, I would suggest that if perchance thru some strange happening ability of the character necessary to perform the functions set up for the proposed "Sophomore Club" should at any time become apparent in that sophisticated class that it be devoted to inculcating in the yearlings the true respect for Aggie ideals.

In years to come the student body may become so large and unwieldy that a committee such as you suggest editorially may be advisable. Until that time let us preserve the best tradition we have, namely, hospitality, through the system which fostered and developed it to its present admirable status.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) '22.

DARING ROBBERY AT EX-SERVICE MEN'S CLUB

Favorite Ivories Removed from Chambers While Soldiers Pray.—Motive of Crime Not Yet Discovered.

A daring robbery occurred in the chambers of the Ex-Service Men's Club Sunday morning while most of the old soldiers were at church. A careful scrutiny of the chambers revealed the startling information that their highly prized imported ivory had been stolen. The ivory was in the shape of flat pieces the size of half dollars and were used as counters in the now famous game of Mah-Jong. (Mah-Jong is not related to poker in any way except that chips are used in both.) When the loss was discovered at a special meeting called Monday by Captain Commandant Crim, there was a great deal of excitement and "Red" O'Neill was given K. P. duty. The military police had to be called in to settle several acrimonious discussions among the disabled veterans. Because of an injured arm, Charles D. Christoph was not able to participate in the aforementioned. Most of the furniture can be salvaged.

The poker counters, which were beautifully set in hand-embroidered ivory, were the gift of Private J. Bradford Ricketts, former cafe-orderly in the horse-marines, and were acquired by him from a Cuban lord during his stay as a missionary in the island.

When interviewed, Capt. Crim said, "It is beyond me. The military department has no need for the material, as there is plenty of ivory in the cadet corps."

"I can say nothing at present," Detective Eccles remarked during an interview of an hour and a half. "I have assigned Hawkshaw Sayman and 'Bowie-knife' Bates to the case, and expect early developments, as we already have several clues."

The reporter could find no justification of the rumor that one of the disks was found near the door of Holcomb Hall. Mr. Ricketts, who was seen leaving the vicinity of Holcomb Hall a while after the robbery spoke with a tremor in his voice when interviewed. "The loss is irreparable," he sobbed, "I'm all broken up, as the counters were very beneficial to me."

Cuspidor, the club's mascot, a brass monkey that sits above the doorway, said nothing. All Ex-Service men who wish to renew their acquaintance with the battlefield are cordially invited to visit the scene of the daring robbery.

MAKING IT EASIER

A couple of gay young blades were discussing the newest feminine acquisition to their social set.

"Rather sophisticated little thing," remarked one patronizingly, "But she didn't have anything on Mae."

"Oh, I don't know," said the other, coming to the defense of the lady, "She jolly well flavors her lip rouge with strawberry, you know."

"Out of date," murmured Mae's friend. "Mae uses luminous paint so you can find them in the dark."—Adv.

Whether your Dairy Farm is a Prospect or an Established Reality . . .

YOU cannot afford to forget the two economical milk producers—Diamond Corn Gluten Meal and Buffalo Corn Gluten Feed.

Take Diamond, for instance:

$42.00 worth of a grain ration consisting of 3 parts Diamond Corn Gluten Meal, 1 part linseed meal, 1 part Bran and 5 parts oats, will produce at current prices $175.00 worth of milk.

If you're an undergraduate, write down the above in that notebook in which you've been storing up money-making hints for dairymen.

If you're an alumnus, with an established farm, make a note to discuss this with your dealer.

Either of these feeds will increase your cows' milk flow and keep them in better shape. And that's worth remembering, whether you can profit by it now or four years from now.

"WILLIE-HOUND" RETURNS
FROM MIDNIGHT ORGY TO FIND BED IN DUCK POND

H. F. Manierre Finds that Floating on the Annual Spring, Floods in East Hartford is Not the Only
Time He and His Bed Are to Get Wet.

(Special to the Campus)

Storrs, April 27 (by the Amalgamated Press).—Some of the boys go to Willimantic! And other boys live to make life miserable for these "Willi-hounds". The iron cot supplied by the college, and occupied occasionally by Howard Francis Manierre, '26, of East Hartford, rode triumphantly at anchor on an inlet of the Duck Pond this morning when the first shaft of light pierced the Sultan's turret, or rather, the ice-house.

It seems that Manierre had journeyed to Willimantic, South Manchester, or some other neighboring town, to attend a dance. Meanwhile fiendish fellows removed his bed from the first section of Storrs Hall, and taking it to the Duck Pond, constructed a raft and launched it to the evening zephyrs. The names of the culprits remain a mystery, although a special commission has begun an investigation of the crime.

When interviewed by a "Campus" reporter, Manierre would say nothing except that he was under thenecessity of changing his sheet and buying a new pillow-slip. The property damage is slight.

NUTMEG WILL BE OUT BY JUNIOR WEEK

Prospects are good for an early delivery of The Nutmeg. The editorial board has finished its work, and it is now simply a matter of whether the printer can get the book out by Junior Week. Last year was the first time for several years that this feat was accomplished, and it is hoped that this year may see its repetition.

According to advice from the editor, The Nutmeg this year will blossom forth in a cover of the same material as last year's issue, but in a blue color, and with a slightly different grain effect. The total number of pages will be the same, but the views instead of being grouped in a section, will be scattered throughout the book. The border will, in all probability, be in a gray half-tone rather than in color.

GIRLS UNABLE TO HOLD MEETS THIS YEAR

Owing to the Girls' Rifle Club's late start and to the few remaining weeks of college, Lieutenant G. H. Passmore has announced that it will be impossible for the Club to hold a rifle match with other colleges this year. Rhode Island and Massachusetts report, in replies to challenges, that they have no rifle team at present. Ripon College does not reply and other colleges have asked for contests next year. Therefore this season's practice will end with a contest to determine the relative standing of the girls in the rifle squad. Two sighting and ten record shots will be allowed for each girl in prone, kneeling, and sitting positions. These shots may be fired on Tuesday, May 1, from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. or on Friday, May 4, from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Other periods may be arranged if above are inconvenient.

JUNIOR PLAY TO BE BANNER PRODUCTION

Rehearsals for "Three Live Ghosts"
Being Held Nightly in Preparation for Junior Week.

Members of the cast of the Junior play, "Three Live Ghosts," are hard at work in preparation for the staging of the three act comedy on Saturday evening of Junior Week, and all indications point that the play will be among the best seen on the Hill. Mr. Michael J. Farrell is in charge of the play and assures the college that a real dramatic treat will be in store for them when the curtain rises. Seats will be on sale in the near future and as the demand will be heavy an early selection will be advisable.

OUT-DOOR RANGE WORK STARTED BY R. O. T. C.

Spring rifle practice on the outdoor range was commenced by the local unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corps early this week and budding aspirants for honors in this line are hard at work throughout the day. The results of training in the gallery are much in evidence as the scores are exceptionally good and a decided improvement over preceeding years.

FLOOR OF SWIMMING POOL
NOW BEING LAID

The tiling has been started on the floor of the swimming pool in Hawley Armory and work has been progressing rapidly for the past few days. Some delay was necessary before the flooring could be laid in order that the final finish might have time to harden before the tiling was applied. All the electric light fixtures and steam fittings have been installed and only the tiling remains to be finished before the pool will be ready for use.

MONTEITH ART SOCIETY HOLDS SECOND MEETING

Anne Flanagan Elected Secretary.—
Society to Give Exhibition of Paintings.

Something of the life of Professor Emeritus Henry R. Monteith was told members of the Monteith Art Society by Dr. H. K. Denlinger of the English Department at the second meeting of the Society last Thursday evening.

Preceding the talk by Dr. Denlinger a short business session was held at which Anne Flanagan was elected secretary of the Society. In his talk Dr. Denlinger told of the personality and characteristics of Professor Monteith. His talk was enjoyed by all the members, especially the freshmen who did not have the opportunity to know Professor Monteith.

The first definite work of the Society will be the exhibition of a collection of prints from the paintings of John Singer Sargent. The exhibition will be held in the lecture room of Holcomb Hall on Sunday afternoon, May 6, and will open to the public from 2 to 5 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 in the evening. Mr. Sargent, an American by birth, is considered one of the greatest modern portrait painters. Most of his work is in the Boston Art Museum, where he is now doing much of his painting. Mr. Sargent designed the rotunda of the Museum.

MISS MARION EGGLESTON ON DEMONSTRATION TRIP

Miss Marion Eggleston, '24, and her team-mate, Miss Elizabeth Perkins of Salisbury, who composed the champion canning demonstration team of the Northern Atlantic States, which won third place at the Chicago Exposition last fall, gave a canning demonstration in the Biltmore Country Club, at Rye, New York, Friday, April 27, before the National Bankers Association of America. Mr. Noble the national secretary of Boys' and Girls' Clubs, made arrangements for the demonstration for the purpose of showing the practical and successful work that the Boys' and Girls' Clubs are doing, so that more money could be obtained for their continuance. The demonstration was most appreciably received. Club steers were also brought and shown by club boys from Pennsylvania. They may go to Washington soon.

FACULTY AND EXTENSION MEMBERS AT CO-ED TEA

Reception Planned for Sunday Afternoon

Sunday, May 13, the co-eds will open the doors of Holcomb Hall to receive the faculty and the extension people as guests. Tea will be served from three until five in the afternoon. Every member of the faculty or the extension service has been invited to attend. About two hundred and fifty are expected to visit the dormitory during the course of the afternoon. All rooms in the building will be open for inspection. The terrace will be used for practically the first time this season.

The reception rooms and halls will be decorated with palms and flowers from the greenhouse. Music by the college orchestra and the possibility of special selections by a few of the girls will furnish entertainment. Refreshments will be made and served by the Home Economics students.

Every girl in the college will assist in the entertainment. Those in the receiving line will be Miss E. M. Sprague, Dean of Women, Miss E. J. Rose, Home Economics Supervisor in the State, Miss Lundberg and Miss G. I. Scharfenstein, instructors in the college, and the Misses Hallock, Hamilton, Graf, Hills, Barton, Pierpont, Flanagan, Kittner, Gerard and Glass.

Last year during May, an At Home similar to this was held, on which occasion Holcomb Hall was formally opened for the first time. Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Vinton, members of the Board of Trustees, assisted in the receiving line. About one hundred and fifty people visited the dormitory. Several improvements have been made since then.

CONNECTICUT DAY

The success of Connecticut Day, the annual college "clean-up" day, which falls this year on May 8, will be largely affected by the cooperation of the Co-eds. Miss Elsie Wattie, chairman of the girls' assignments, has posted the sections of work in Holcomb Hall. As in previous years they will pass welcome refreshments in the form of doughnuts, during the morning, substitute the dining hall staff, on both the cafeteria and service sides of the dining hall at noon, serve an outdoor supper on the Athletic Field, and put to practice their acquired knowledge of sewing in repairing the athletic uniforms. In addition, they will make themselves generally useful in stimulating action on various parts of the campus by their presence at critical moments.

HARTFORD FACTORIES VISITED BY STUDENTS

Seven members of the class in Machine Shop Practice, under the guidance of Professor Fitts, visited the plants of Billings & Spencer, and the Colt Fire Arms Corporation last Friday in Hartford.

At the factory of Billings & Spencer the engineers were given a chance to study the making of wrenches and other tools and tool parts which include processes of pattern making, drop forging, welding, bulging, tempering, case hardening, polishing and stamping of iron and steel.

At the Colt Factory many different kinds of pistols and revolvers were seen in the process of construction. Methods of forging, cutting, making, fitting, tempering, bluing, polishing, adjusting, assembling, sighting, and testing were seen by or demonstrated to the group.

Sam Russell, Jr., of Middletown, Conn., has presented "Joe" Pritchard, herdsman of the College flock, with a finely bred Shepherd pup.

his first numbers and occasionally when in a mood of fierce passion. However, in many of the songs his work softened and melted into clear rich cadence.

The efforts of Mr. Roland Poisson, the young violinist, received appreciative applause. Mr. Poisson showed interpretative skill and mastery of technique that was particularly pleasing. Mr. Carrier's ability as a pianist was exhibited in two fine numbers.

The artists were greatly pleased with the response and evident pleasure of the audience. Mr. Dufault was influenced to come here by Dr. Girouard of Willimantic and Professor Croteau of the French Department.

the present tennis courts which are to be removed when the A. A. field is enlarged in the near future. The grounds around the infirmary will be graded and seeded down. In the cemetery all fallen gravestones will be restored to their original position and the churchyard will be given a general cleaning. The baseball diamond and track will receive their share of attention as will also Swan Lake and the signs about the college.

The Co-eds are planning to do their share of the work, and besides distributing doughnuts and liquid refreshments during the working hours, they will mend all athletic uniforms and will replace the regular dining hall staff at noon.

As the evening shadows draw nigh the fair Co-eds will serve on the A. A. field to the fatigued workers, an open-air supper of beans, cold ham, frankfurts, potato salad, rolls, coffee and ice cream. And then, as the shadows deepen, the workers will adjourn to the Armory where blistered hands and aching muscles will be forgotten in the enjoyment of an old clothes dance.
